DECEMBER 2015 - JANUARY 2016 NEWSLETTER

Hi Everyone. Hoping you're all well.

As usual a lot has been happening here at TNW. I've bought a new treatment in called SNS nails. It's been popular in the USA for a while. It was originally invented by a guy who worked within the nail industry for many years but noticed we needed something more. The best way I can describe SNS is that it's a cross between traditional gels & acrylics.

I guess picking up the good bits of both. There's close to 400 colours in the range, although I've only got 13 base colours at the moment. As with most things I like to see how far I can push a product under different circumstances & what combinations I can come up with. I've been working with it for over a month now & I'm pretty happy with the results. A big thankyou to all my models that have helped me along the way. I'm running a great nails special this month so check out the details below.

On a sadder note I have to tell you that our beloved four legged doorbell & escort "Maggie" passed away a few months ago. It's taken awhile to get used to, but like with everything we have to concentrate on what we have & not what we've lost. So I concentrate on the good memories. For you guys, you will actually have to ring the doorbell from now onwards ☺.

On a happy note it's nearly the end of the year. Woo Hoo!!!

Christmas is knocking & the new year is just around the corner.

I won't be closed for long this year, as I might need a little time off next year if the new house/salon goes ahead as planned. Fingers crossed. I have to say a huge thankyou to everyone for your support throughout the year no matter how big or small. I know without you, there would be no me. xxx I hope you all have a wonderful x-mas with people you love. Don't forget to pick up your x-mas pressie next time you're in here. I can't eat them all ☺. All the best & see you soon, Jennie Gipp
